

F. MARGARET MILLIGAN SCHOLARSHIP

F. Margaret Milligan, a Calgary artist, donated a number of her paintings throughout her life and the proceeds from the sale of her works were used to establish this award in 1985 in her name. The Scholarship is awarded to a student who has achieved excellence in an art program sponsored by the Calgary Board of Education (High School, Further Education or Adult Academic) and who is eligible for admission to a post-secondary art program. The award was created to encourage students to continue in post-secondary education on the basis of demonstrated creative artistic ability.

DONOR: Estate of F. Margaret Milligan

WHERE TENABLE: Calgary Board of Education and Continuing Education programs

FIELD OF STUDY: Fine Arts
